In this talk, we examine the topic of frames. We begin by defining the frame, and then take a look at an example of a sequence which is not a frame. We define the Gabor system and Gabor frame, and explore criteria which is necessary for a Gabor system to be a frame. Finally, we introduce a sequence which is, indeed, a frame.