We will discuss some classical ideas in algebraic geometry. We will define affine and projective varieties and give examples of some properties of interest. We will also discuss some classical questions that people still study today.